

Cancellation of the trip.

ERV will reimburse the cancellation charges due by contract up to the agreed sum insured, if the insured person is affected by one of the insured events listed below:

1 -serious illness or accident.

2 -insured people hospitalized for more than 24hours, making not reasonable to expect the insured person to undertake the trip as scheduled.

3 -insured people death.

4 -insured person serious illness.

5 -insured surgery.

6 -serious illness of children under 24 months.-loss or damage to property due to fire, burst pipes, natural events or criminal action by a third party, if the loss or damage is substantial or the presence of the insured person is necessary for loss assessment.

7 -theft of official documents, that hinders the insured people to continue the journey.

8 -called as a witness or jury in a trial or an official elections controller.

9 -natural events at the holiday place, which declare it as a catastrophic area.

10 -loss of employment as a result of unexpected dismissal by the employer for business reasons.- the taking up of employment relationship, if it starts after the trip start date.

11 -called for examination by a government dept.

12 -unexpected date for organ or tissue transplant,under the Transplantation Act.

13 -date for a divorce trial.

14 -date for a confirmation of an adopted child.

15 -date for signal or presentation of official documents